Why The Chosen: Last Supper for my Church?

The Chosen has been one of the most watched episodic shows over the past several years. No doubt many in your congregation have become viewers and even fans of the show in this time, and some people are just now discovering The Chosen.

The Chosen is a groundbreaking historical drama based on the life of Jesus Christ, seen through the eyes of those who knew him. Set against the backdrop of Roman oppression in first-century Israel, the seven-season show shares an authentic and intimate look at Jesus' revolutionary life and teachings.

As a Church Community, The Chosen exists to draw your people into the scripture, to know more about Jesus. The Chosen is designed to support the truth and intention of the scriptures.

We invite you to discover The Chosen: Last Supper in theaters beginning March 27th, 2025. And if you have not already experienced seasons 1-4, now is a great time to discover The Chosen, you can watch free on several streaming platforms including The Chosen App.

How can your Church engage The Chosen: Last Supper?

When The Chosen: Last Supper opens in theaters on March 27th, your Church community, small groups, and families can see the entire season leading up to Holy Week.

- Part One releases March 27th
- Part Two releases April 2nd
- Part 3 releases April 9th.

Some theaters will keep each Part in theaters after they release. On Palm Sunday weekend April 12-13 and on Easter weekend April 18-20, all 3 Parts will be available in theaters.

Come and See is creating some exciting resources with our partners. As a Church you can use these free resources to enhance your Easter season with discussion guides, family guides, and more. You can find them here - <https://www.comeandseefoundation.org/resources>, they will be available in early 2025.

Come and See is preparing a special Communion resource that will include content from The Chosen: Last Supper to use for your communion services anytime, not just during the Easter season.

The Chosen Seasons 1-4 are available now along with Church Resources for each season. Now is a great time to use these free resources in your Church for groups inside the Church and even ministry outside of the Church in schools, prisons, and other opportunities.
